Department: PG DEPARTMENT COMMERCE
DEPARTMENTAL ACTIVITY REPORT
SESSION -2026-2027

World Commerce Day (frequently observed or referenced alongside International/National Commerce Days) is typically marked on the first Monday of August each year. It serves as a dedicated occasion to recognize the vital role that trade, retail, market networks, and commercial enterprises play in driving local and global economies. Modern observances increasingly focus on the evolution of global trade, emphasizing digital transformation, fintech innovations, sustainable business practices, and the adaptability of commercial frameworks in navigating shifting economic landscapes.

Title of Activity	World Commerce Day
Date	03.08.2026
Theme	SOCIAL COMMERCE
Number of Participants	Total:100
Name of the Resource Person/ Trainer/ Guests	Dr GOURI SANKAR LALL , RETD. PROFESSOR OF COMMERCE, BERHAMPUR UNIVERSITY
Objective of the Meeting/ Seminar /Workshop/Event	SHARING OF KNOWLEDGE REGARDING WORLD COMMERCE DAY AND SOCIALIZATION OF COMMERCE.
Discussion Points	World Commerce Day (frequently observed or referenced alongside International/National Commerce Days) is typically marked on the first Monday of August each year. The concept of the socialization of commerce can be examined through two distinct yet complementary lenses: socio-economic integration (how commerce embeds itself within societal structures) and digital-social integration (how commerce merges with social media and human connectivity)
Action Taken	The Principal, Dr. Ajay Kumar Tripathy, chaired the programme, followed by Sri Susanta Das, Administrative Officer, who shared his views and advised students regarding the Commerce. Dr Pinki Rani Dei present welcome address and introduced the guest and vote of thanks, was given by Smt. Stitee Dash. All the UG and PG students along with the staff were present in the meeting.
